I read through almost all the Ravelry entries of this project to see how other people's sweaters turned out depending on how many chains they started with, what yarn they used and any other modifications they made. It was a challenge determining the size as some people's sweaters turned out too long or too short, and it was hard to judge how tall these people were in their photos.

Statistics are supposed to make something easier to understand but when used in a misleading fashion can trick the casual observer into believing something other than what the data shows. That is, a misuse of statistics occurs when a statistical argument asserts a falsehood. In some cases, the misuse may be accidental. In others, it is purposeful and for the gain of the perpetrator.

Hmm.. What I see is $7932 per year for tuition and fees. If your kid is like I was, and is willing to pay for his own education with no loans, and live at home with the parents for free rent and food to achieve this, he can accomplish this with only 528 hours of paid work (3 months at 15 bucks an hour) per year.
